

Pair Share Protocol

Pair Share Protocol Prompts	Getting ready to identify inquiry question
As you dip in and read, write down what seems interesting to you. Write why you think it is interesting.	This is interesting... This is interesting because...
Read over what you have written and write the things you would like to tell someone else about.	I would like to tell about...
Pair Share Partner A: Shares Partner B: Listens and takes notes. Partner B: Shares Partner A: Listens and takes notes.	Share with your partner and take notes. Telling helps to clarify your ideas for forming a good inquiry question.
Partners exchange notes.	Your partner's notes on what you shared can give you insight for forming possible inquiry questions.
Reflect on what you found interesting and how you described it to your partner and think about the possible questions too look into further.	Write three possible question that you would like to explore further.

Figure 6.2 Explore Pair Share Protocol